SUMMER BREAK DOESN'T MEAN A BREAK FROM WORK

For children, summer means freedom, fun and responsibility. For working parents, it means finding dependable care for nearly 12 weeks while balancing work, family and cost of childcare.

NEARLY 12 WEEKS OF SUMMER BREAK

For AISD, Dripping Springs ISD, Hays CISD, Manor ISD & charter schools

TYPICALLY 2-4 WEEKS OF VACATION FOR MOST WORKING PARENTS

U.S. average, depending on tenure

FAMILIES PLAN EARLY. LOCATION MATTERS.

Summer Camp 2027 registration opens December 14. Working parents need to know where camp will be offered so they can plan their scheduled and secure dependable care.

YOUR ORGANIZATION CAN HELP BRIDGE THAT GAP.

By hosting Y Summer Camp Unplugged, you can provide working families with dependable summer care while giving children a safe, enriching place to spend their days.
